

VIRGINIA HISTORY TRAILS: CITIZENSHIP TRAIL

One person can make a difference as a brave voice battling an unjust world. In triumph and tragedy, these Virginia legacies live on. Below is a list of sites and stories on the Citizenship themed trail on Virginia History Trails.

Central Virginia

- Chickahominy Indians Eastern Division, New Kent County, VA
- Civil Rights Movement, Richmond, VA
- Civil War Richmond, Richmond, VA
- Israel Hill Settlement, Farmville, VA
- John Marshall, Richmond, VA
- John Mercer Langston, Louisa, VA
- Joseph Jenkins Roberts (Liberal), Petersburg, VA
- Rappahannock Indians, King & Queen County, VA
- Richmond Slave Trail, Richmond, VA
- State Capitol, Richmond, VA
- United States Colored Troops, Henrico, VA
- Vernon Johns, Petersburg, VA
- Walter Plecker, Richmond, VA

Chesapeake Bay

- Pamunkey Indians, King William, VA

Coastal

- African Arrival in English America, Fort Monroe, VA
- Dred Scott Decision, Courtland, VA
- Dunmore's Proclamation, Chesapeake, VA
- Elizabeth Key Grinstead, Historic Jamestown, VA
- Fort Monroe, Fort Monroe, VA
- James Lafayette, New Kent, VA
- John Punch, Historic Jamestown, VA
- Nat Turner's Rebellion, Courtland, VA
- Readjuster Party (William Mahone), Courtland, VA
- St. George Tucker, Williamsburg, VA
- Tucker Family Cemetery, Hampton, VA

- Virginia Declaration of Rights, Mason Neck, VA

Northern Virginia

- George Mason, Mason Neck, VA
- Patawomeck Indians, Stafford County, VA
- Trail of Anthony Burns, Falmouth, VA
- Trail to Freedom, Fredericksburg, VA
- War Conference (1988 LGBT meeting), Warrenton, VA

Southern Virginia

- Ex Parte Virginia (1880), Chatham, VA

Southside

- Cheroenhaka (Nottoway) Indians, Courtland, VA