

VIRGINIA HISTORY TRAILS: MILITARY TRAIL

The military has played a key role charting the course of Virginia and the nation, at home and abroad, from its founding to today's digital world. Below is a list of sites and stories on the Military themed trail on Virginia History Trails.

Central Virginia

- American Civil War Museum, Richmond, VA
- Civil War Richmond, Richmond, VA
- Petersburg During the Civil War, Petersburg, VA
- Surrender at Appomattox, Appomattox, VA
- U.S. Army Women's Museum, Fort Lee, VA
- United States Colored Troops, Henrico, VA
- Virginia War Memorial, Richmond, VA
- White House of the Confederacy, Richmond, VA

Chesapeake Bay

- Battle of the Hook, Gloucester, VA

Coastal

- Cape Henry Lighthouse, Fort Story, VA
- Fort Monroe, Fort Monroe, VA
- MacArthur Memorial, Norfolk, VA
- Mariners' Museum & Park, Newport News, VA
- Naval Station Norfolk, Norfolk, VA
- Virginia Civil War Trails, Williamsburg, VA
- Eastern Shore
 - Tangier Island, Tangier, VA

Northern Virginia

- Battle of Chancellorsville, Spotsylvania, VA
- Carlyle House Historic Park, Alexandria, VA
- Chatham Manor, Fredericksburg, VA
- First & Second Battle of Manassas, Manassas, VA
- Graffiti House, Brandy Station, VA

- Natl. Museum of the Marine Corps, Triangle, VA
- NASM's Steven F. Udvar Hazy Center, Chantilly, VA

Shenandoah Valley

- Virginia Military Institute, Lexington, VA

Southwest Virginia

- Overmountain Victory NHT, Abingdon, VA

Virginia Mountains

- Andrew Lewis, Salem, VA