

VIRGINIA HISTORY TRAILS: RESISTANCE TRAIL

Resistance to oppression is central to understanding who we are as Virginians. Explore the stories that transformed the Commonwealth and the nation. Below is a list of sites and stories on the Resistance themed trail on Virginia History Trails.

Central Virginia

- Civil Rights Movement, Richmond, VA
- Gabriel's Conspiracy, Henrico, VA
- John Brown's Raid, Amissville, VA
- John Mitchell Jr./ Richmond Planet, Richmond, VA
- Loving v. Virginia (1967), Richmond, VA
- Moton School Strike, Farmville, VA
- Oliver W. Hill, Richmond, VA
- Richmond Streetcar Boycotts (1904), Richmond, VA
- Road to Revolution Heritage Trail, Richmond, VA

Chesapeake Bay

- Morgan v. Virginia (1946), Saluda, VA
- Opechancanough, Manquin, VA

Coastal

- Dred Scott Decision, Courtland, VA
- Fort Monroe, Fort Monroe, VA
- George & Rebecca Latimer, Norfolk, VA
- Great Dismal Swamp, Suffolk, VA
- Hampton University, Hampton, VA
- James Lafayette, New Kent, VA
- John Punch, Historic Jamestown, VA
- Nat Turner's Rebellion, Courtland, VA
- New Kent HS & George Watkins School, New Kent, VA
- Norfolk 17, Norfolk, VA
- Shadrach Minkins, Norfolk, VA
- Underground Railroad in Virginia, Norfolk, VA

Northern Virginia

- Alexandria Black History Museum, Alexandria, VA
- Carter v. School Board of Arlington County, Arlington, VA
- Chatham Manor, Fredericksburg, VA
- Henry “Box” Brown, Stafford, VA
- Moncure Conway, Falmouth, VA
- Trial of Anthony Burns, Falmouth, VA

Southern Virginia

- Great Moonshine Conspiracy Trial, Chase City, VA

Southwest Virginia

- Mary Draper Ingles, Radford, VA
- Overmountain Victory NHT, Abingdon, VA