

Changemakers Programming Ideas

Need inspiration? Below, you'll find some novel programming ideas to help you highlight the Changemakers in your community.

- Invite living changemakers to speak about their experience and motivations
- Partner with your local historical society for a lecture series on little known changemakers in your locality. Submit the stories of these changemakers to <https://aestories.com/>
- Host storytelling events for people to discuss changemakers in their lives. Use our prompts to get started and upload responses to aestories.com
- Visit a nursing home or retirement community and record stories of changemakers in the lives of the elderly. Use our prompts to get started and upload responses to aestories.com
- Feature self-portraits from influential creative makers in your community in your hallways, gallery, exhibits, or other display spaces. Take a picture and submit them to our Great Idea Gallery.
- Reach out to your local 2019 Commemoration School (see listing here) with ideas for local changemakers to include in the classroom
- Partner with your local government to highlight individuals currently making legislative changes to your community
- Host a contest to identify young changemakers in your area
