2019 COMMEMORATION STATEMENT

President Trump and Speaker Pelosi were invited to participate in commemorative ceremonies on July 30, 2019, marking the 400th anniversary of representative government in America. The invitations were extended jointly by Governor Northam, Speaker Cox, and Senator Norment last year. Speaker Pelosi's office declined the invitation within the last two weeks. The White House has made no announcement regarding the President's plans.
